Hi and By Bill

It was fun while you were here. We sure missed you the last part. But Bill wish you lots of luck.

Jonathan

Dear Will,
How to you like us
I hope you are a good old boy. It's been a long time since you left us. I hope you find a good place to live in. You will be a fine old fellow. Good luck to you.
Yours truly,
Dixie

Dear Will,
You never thought it'd
last. Did you? Will. Well, it's gone pretty far so far
it sure was swell knowing you. I wish you'd come home where you belong. We all miss you.
You be good now.

Love,

Mary Kelly

TRINITAS

Dear Will,
It's just me, Bessie.
I never seen you for so long. How are you making out with all the lucky girls.
I feel worse, I'm here today aside Bill! it's been a long time since I've been here
of fun knowing you well
I sure wish you would be here to graduate with us. I don't think I can, Bessie.

Dear Bill,

It was a long,
hard struggle but
we finally made it.
Its too bad you can't be graduating with
us. From what I hear,
I don't suppose you
miss us too
much.
Lots of luck.

DEDICATION

With our deepest gratitude we,
the class of 1952, dedicate this,
our volume of TRINITAS,

TO OUR PARENTS

who have reared us from infancy, guided us by example
and love through childhood,
and by prayer and sacrifice have given us the courage and strength now, after schooldays to go forth into the world with God as our Protector.

Valse moderato

The illustration depicts a two-story school building with a prominent gabled roof and a central entrance. In the foreground, several children are playing on a grassy hill. Some are sitting on the grass, while others are playing with a ball. The scene is framed by musical staves on the left and right sides, with lyrics written in a cursive font. The lyrics include:

- In c., and
- school
- soth - ing to that
- therem - o - ry's
- noon on that old
- ship hill

CHEERLEADERS

CHEER SONG

Onward and on,
On the march to victory.
Each day the dawn
Will bring the sun to shine upon
The fighting saints who gallantly Defend the blue and white
On every field in unity.
Always banners flying high,
Together do or die,
For TRIN-I-TY.

LOYALTY SONG

Trinity, our dear old High,
We are loyal to you.
Trinity, our dear old High,
We are all for you.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Hail to the blue and white,
Fight with all your might.
Always we'll be standing by,
For Trinity, our High.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
